Understanding Our XRP Audience

Ripple.com XRP Portal Goals

1. Drive buyer interest.
2. Position XRP as the best bridge currency.
3. Segment XRP buyer audience from bank audience.

Increased XRP Portal Traffic & Targeted Content

In September, there was a 39% increase in XRP Portal traffic.

We introduced a 'How to Buy XRP' article, which had over 3000 unique views and a 'XRP vs BTC and ETH' article on the 29th (garnering over 500 views in 2 days!).

We are successfully driving potential XRP buyers to the XRP Portal, aligning with our company objective of making XRP more liquid.

The XRP contact form tracks leads and interest from financial institutions, institutional investors and liquidity providers.

There were 16 XRP contact conversions in September: 1 institutional investor and 15 individuals.

In Q4, we are going to run specific XRP AdWord campaigns and will continue to create high-quality relevant content in order to increase XRP liquidity and attract our targeted audience.

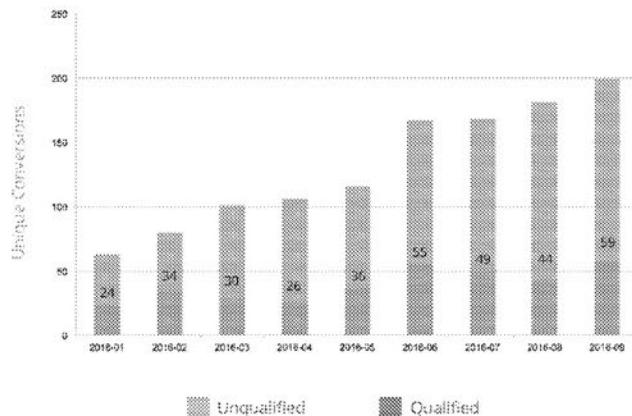

Goal 1

Generate Qualified Leads for Sales

Measured by contact form conversion

Record-Breaking Conversions & Qualified Leads

Google AdWords drove 13% of contact conversions this month, resulting in a 34% increase in contact page traffic and a 10% increase in total contact conversions.

A record-breaking 59 qualified leads in September, which is a 34% increase since August and a 28% improvement since Q2.

Goal 2

Attract World-Class Talent

Measured by job applicant submissions and accepted offers

Introducing Career-Specific AdWord Campaigns

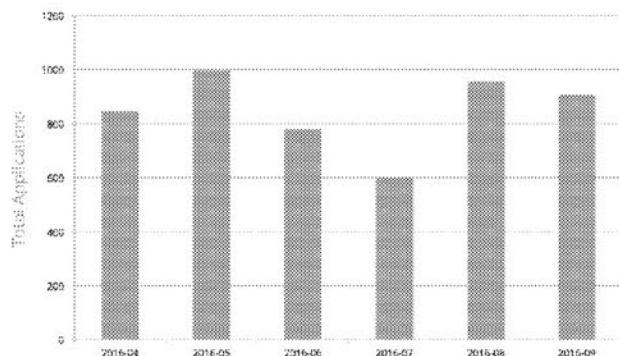

In September, we launched a targeted careers AdWord campaign in order to attract world-class talent.

Google searches and applications saw a huge spike from our Series B announcement (over 30 applicants on September 15th, a single day record by over 300%).

Decreased Total Applicants, Increased Accepted Offers

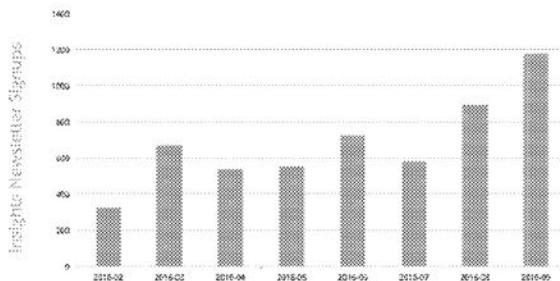

Although there was a slight decrease in total applicants, there was a 20% increase in accepted offers in September. In addition, we saw a 6.5% increase in applicants applying directly on Ripple.com compared to August.

Record-Breaking Insights Newsletter Signup

We had a record-breaking 1175 unique signups for the Ripple Insights newsletter in September, a 30% increase since August. (5,307 total since February launch). 90% of these users are active daily on Insights.

Email open rates average 36%, this is over 40% better than industry averages and a 30% increase since Q2 averages. We are continuing to demonstrate thought leadership, retain active users and garner new readership.

Increased Social Audience Growth in Q3

September was a record-breaking month for social referral traffic to ripple.com. Average audience growth across all social channels for Q3 is 27%.

The combined effects of funding news, customer milestone, GPSG, and Sibos resulted in over 18k tweets tagging Ripple. September was also the best month ever for @Ripple retweets, at 1.6k. Additionally, we had 8.5k clicks to ripple.com from our tweeted links, and 1.5k clicks from our LinkedIn content.

Ripple on Facebook increased its audience size by 30% this quarter. This is notable and potentially useful because of the platform's penetration in markets where Twitter and LinkedIn are less popular: APAC countries and the Middle East.
